SCHOONER BRUCE COLUMBIA TAKING CRUISERS WILL SIGNS ON NEW FIRST MATE

PASSENGERS TO SEATTLE

MAKE CALL AT LAHAINA?

After signing on a new first mate here this morning, to take the place of the former first mate, J. H. Boswell, who was paid off here because of a complaint from the schooner's sailors that he was incompetent, the schooner James H. Bruce was due to sail this afternoon for Sydney.

The schooner arrived off port yesterday, and Capt. N. C. Rosch said his men had signed a complaint in the log that First Mate Boswell was inefficient. Following a conference here, at which Secretary Jack Edwards of the Sailors' Union was present, a compromise was made and Boswell was paid off, after a suggestion by the shipping commissioner that the inspector of hulls and boilers determine his competency, had been rejected.

A lumber cargo is being taken by the Bruce from Kureka to Sydney.

With 2100 tons of nitrate on board for this port from Chile, the steam schooner Columbia is being fumigated today at the quarantine wharf, and will dock late this afternoon to begin discharging her cargo. It is expected that she will sail Saturday for Seattle, taking passengers from this port.

The Columbia arrived off port at 10:30 last night, having left Tocopilla February 16. She has room for 50 first-cabin passengers from Honolulu, and will take them to Seattle for $65 each. It was planned to despatch the Columbia to San Francisco, but she will load grain at Seattle for Chile instead. W. W. Dimond & Company are agents here.

HARBOR NOTES

The Matsonia arrived at San Francisco yesterday. She left Honolulu March 4.

Arrival at Seattle yesterday of the U. S. army transport Dix, from Honolulu March 4, is reported.

Due the fore part of next week from Muroran with coal for the Inter-Island is the Japanese steamer Hokkai Maru.

A cargo of lumber for Allen & Robinson is coming in the schooner Mary E. Foster, from Port Gamble yesterday.

Next mail for Japan will go in the T. K. K. liner Persia Maru, due here March 22 from San Francisco, to sail the same afternoon for the Orient.

Next mail from San Francisco will arrive in the Matson steamer Manoa, due Tuesday morning. The China is due to arrive Monday, but will probably be several days late.

Next mail from the Orient will come in the T. K. K. liner Nippon Maru. She is scheduled to arrive Tuesday, but private advices say she is four days late, which, if true, will bring her here March 23.

A seven-pound daughter was born to Capt. and Mrs. H. R. Patterson February 27 at Allentown, Pennsylvania. Capt. Patterson is in the American-Hawaiian service. He was formerly master of the Arizona.

Due from Victoria and Vancouver a week from today is the Canadian-Australasian liner Niagara, which is scheduled to sail the afternoon of the same day for Suva, Auckland, and Sydney, taking passengers, mail and some freight from this port.

At 11 o'clock tomorrow night the Hill liner Great Northern will take the next mail to San Francisco, sailing at 9 that evening at the post-office. The Oceanic liner Sierra, sailing Tuesday afternoon, will take out the next coast mail after the Hill boat.

Two more Japanese ships, the Yamashiro and the Tanba Maru, have been stopped and searched by a British auxiliary cruiser supposedly the Laurence, the same ship which detained the China Mail liner China and took off 28 Germans and Austrians on February 13. Cables to the Nippon Jiji bring word of the two latest hold-ups.

Any slowaways found on the Great Northern after she sails from here at 11 o'clock Thursday night, will be prosecuted to the law's fullest extent. Fred L. Waldron, Ltd., the line's local agents, have announced. A slowaway from San Francisco to San Pedro on the outward voyage was sentenced in the latter port to six months' imprisonment.

Scheduled to arrive here April 20, the Georgian, of the American-Hawaiian fleet, will be the last ship of this line to call here from Puget Sound until the Panama Canal is reopened. The Georgian, the big new boat, last ship of the line to sail from New York via Magellan, will not call here, but her Honolulu cargo will be transhipped at San Francisco, in the Texan or Mexican, the first part of May.

Repairs to the extent of $3000 will be made to the custom house. They include a concrete floor in the tea warehouse, a shower bath outfit for the inspectors, repairs to flag poles, repairs to the roof of the marine hospital building, and painting this structure. Bids on the custom house work have been advertised for, and will be opened at 2 o'clock the afternoon of March 24. The marine hospital bids will be opened later.

The natives of Siam have a horror of odd numbers. They have never been known to build a house or a temple with five, seven, nine or eleven windows.

That the Japanese cruisers Chitose and Takiwa, which anchored in the lee of Maui some time ago, bound for Canada with a large amount of Russian gold, will make a stay of several days off Lahaina on their return, is stated in advices today to the Hawaii Hochi.

A letter dated March 1, the day the two vessels left Victoria, has been received by M. Nakamura, Japanese clerk at the Lahaina, Maui, post-office, from an officer of the Chitose.

The communication asks that he arrange for supplies of fresh vegetables and fruits for the cruisers on their arrival off Lahaina. The letter said the ships' speed is only six knots, so that they probably will not be sighted for several days.

Both cruisers are on their way back to Japan, according to the letter, after taking Russian gold to Vancouver. Reports said they carried 100,000,000 rubles from Vladivostok to the Canadian port.

WANT FIDOS AND FIFIS ADMITTED FROM MAINLAND

Promotion Committee Takes Up Matter of Tourists Bringing Pet Dogs to Islands

Inasmuch as the tourist travel to Honolulu is being held up on account of the dogs, who are held up for quarantine for a period of four months, the members of the Promotion Committee asked that the best reasons for detaining the Fidos and Fifies be given. Several cases of tourists staying away because of the canine prohibition are given on page nine of this issue.

Reports from the mainland states that three pound dogs are holding up parties who will not come to Hawaii unless they can bring their pets with them. Show dogs are allowed to enter the port, being quarantined at the theater, and the committee wants to learn if there is way in which the pets can be brought here. The secretary was authorized to ask Dr. Victor A. Norgaard to meet with the members and discuss the situation.

THOU TRANSPORT THOMAS.

By MERRILL C. MEADE, Company C, 1st Infantry, Schofield Barracks, H. T.

Oh, thou mighty transport, that comes sailing 'cross the sea, How my heart yearns for thy welfare as thou comest here for me; When I hear the people crying, "Transport Thomas in the dock."

I'll shut Hawaii's loneliness door and forever turn the lock; When thy siren's wail and welcome shriek comes wafting o'er the hill.

My joy will be excelled by none at that most welcome shrill; I'll come aboard thy battered hull to voyage for seven days— It's worth those days of misery to shake loose Hawaiian ways.

Transport Thomas, won't thou hurry and come sailing here to me, From Manila, Nagasaki; oh, come steaming 'cross the sea; Be thy sides as old and time-worn as the old Earth is itself.

I will board thee, transport Thomas, let my bed be but a shelf; And I won't begrudge thy rocking and that dreadful seasickness.

If thou do but bear me homeward to that Land of Happiness Which lies miles across the water, 'cross the ocean's briny blue, Where the Golden Gate lies waiting for you, transport Thomas, you.

Oh, the happy men thou carryest, as thou steams to Frisco Town, And how many souls would perish if the waves should bear thee down? But thou shalt, thou wilt breast all of them to San Francisco Bay.

And bear thy happy burden homeward upon that glorious day; Speed thou up, my transport Thomas, for that nearing April morn.

Take us home to waiting mothers, to the home where we were born. Prepare thyself to bear a cargo, precious to our ones at home. Take us back, oh, transport Thomas, vowing never more to roam."

GERMAN SHIPPING MEN WHO SOLD LIQUOR MAY GET OFF WITH WARNING

The possibility that the prosecution of men on interested and refused German ships for selling liquor will be compromised with an emphatic warning is now seen by city officials.

The two cases which were to have gone to trial in police court yesterday were continued, and Deputy City Attorney Chillingworth said this morning that the continuance was at the request of License Inspector Fennell. It was Fennell who swore out the warrants a few days ago, following a Sunday visit to the German ships, where he and an informant are alleged to have secured information of illicit liquor selling. Whether Fennell wished further time to work up his case or expected that a compromise of some sort would be effected is not known at the city attorney's office, Chillingworth said today.

Chairman F. D. Lowrey of the Oahu liquor license commission, says that the cases are not regarded by the commission as any different from other cases of alleged law violation, and that the prosecution is in the hands of the license inspector and the city attorney's office.

From other sources it is reported that the situation will be laid before the German consul and if the offending persons agree to discontinue liquor sales on the ships they may not be prosecuted to the limit.

PILING OF MAIL ON BETHEL STREET WILL BE STOPPED SHORTLY

Postmaster William F. Young asks the public to be patient with the post-office mail congestion situation for a few days. Governor Lucius E. Pinkham is arranging for the lease of the back lot adjoining the postoffice on the Waikiki side, to the postoffice department, and when this is completed the lot will be used to store incoming mail.

This will relieve the present congestion on Bethel street, where hundreds of bags of mail had to be piled up on the sidewalk yesterday because there was not room enough in the postoffice for mail of it.

PORTO RICAN DROWNS IN KEALIA STREAM; SPREE HAS BAD END

LIHUE, Kauai, March 14.—Last Wednesday afternoon a Hawaiian named Apeli, while walking along near the Kealia stream at Kapahi, discovered a badly decomposed body floating in the water. The police were notified and the remains taken in charge. A coroner's jury was empaneled and tried for three days to establish the identity of the corpse without avail. It was finally proved conclusively, however, that the remains were those of Mateo, a Porto Rican.

Following up the case it was found that Mateo had been paid some money for labor and stratagem proceeded to get intoxicated. He had quite evidently tried to cross the stream above Kapahi and, being too drunk to navigate, fell in.

SHERMAN SAILS FOR MANILA; TAKES MAIL

At noon today the U. S. army transport Sherman sailed for Guam and Manila, taking mail for those points, Hongkong, and beyond, also carrying passengers and freight out from this port.

Passengers sailing on the transport today for Manila were 29 first-cabin, nine second, and one troop. For Guam there were two first-cabin. All the first-cabin for Manila came yesterday from San Francisco on the Wilhelmina. Two second-cabin also came on the liner.
